My Diary   Wan Tin Long, Aidan (4B)

25th October, 2023   Cloudy

I had a bad day today.

Yesterday morning, I went to a toy shop. I saw a toy cat. It was only one hundred dollars. I bought it and took it home. I felt happy.

The toy cat could talk and clap. I felt amazed. I wanted to show it to my classmates, so I put it in my schoolbag and brought it to school this morning.

I showed it to my classmates during recess. Since it was lovely and beautiful, I wanted to show it to my friend.

In the end, my teacher found out I brought the toy cat to school. The teacher confisticated it. I felt sad and I will not bring toys to school ever again!
