

My favourite TV programme

My favourite TV programme is Midlife, Sing & Shine! It is a music talent show which is produced by Hong Kong Television Broadcasting Co, Ltd. It is one of the variety shows produced to celebrate the 55th anniversary of TVB. It is broadcasted under the name 'Inheritance Carnival 55'.

The prelude programme 'The Voice of Middle Age, Start Again to Dream' was broadcasted on Jade Channel on 5th and 12th November in 2022 and the official competition has been broadcasted on Jade Channel since 27th November in 2022.

I think this TV programme is entertaining and amusing. I like watching the performers singing. I think this show is very exciting because someone will be eliminated in each round, and it makes me very nervous.

My favourite part of the show is the elimination part of the performers. The elimination can decide you are successful or not. I watch it every Sunday and I am looking forward to a new show every time.

I will recommend it to my family, friends and teachers. I think they will enjoy watching this music talent show too.
