

A family camp

Li Zi Jun, Andy (5D)

Spencer went to a family camp with his parents. They were at the family camp. They looked at a noticeboard and wanted to join an activity. He saw a boy with a cap. They were very happy.

'Would you like to join the horse-riding class with us?' asked Spencer. 'Yes, I'd love to.' the boy replied. He wanted to join the horse-riding class too. They were happy.

'Have you ever ridden a horse?' asked Spencer. 'Yes, I have ridden a horse once,' the boy replied. The boy felt it was exciting.

They have learnt how to ride a horse. They felt fun.

In the end, they went to have dinner. After that, they read storybooks, played card games and played ball games together. They were delighted.
