Windy

I got hurt during the school picnic today!

We arrived at Sai Kung Country Park at ten o'clock in the morning. It was windy. I flew kites with my friends, Alan and Sam. We felt happy.

Then, we had sandwiches, chicken wings and sushi for lunch. We saw some beautiful flowers and trees. We felt quite relaxed. After that, we played the football. Alan kicked the football to me. Unluckily, I fell down and my leg was hurt. I felt pain and I cried.

In the end, Sam called an ambulance and took me to the hospital.

What a way to end the picnic day!

A visit to Grace Children's Centre

Ng Tsz Ki, Solar (3D)

On Sunday, my parents and I visited Grace Children's Centre.

First, we wrapped some gifts, baked a cake and made some paper dolls for the children before the visit. Then, we played games and sang songs with the children there. Next, we talked with the children and played hide-and-seek with them.

After lunch, we cleaned the floor and tables. We also chatted with the children. Dad and Mum tidied up the bookshelves and painted them in bright colours. The children felt happy. I felt happy too.

I think it is very meaningful to help the needy. I want to visit the centre again. Next time, I will perform magic tricks for them.

At the supermarket

Wang Pang Yu, Peter (3D)

Sally is at the supermarket. She wants to buy three packets of potato chips, two cans of cola and a box of eggs. It is because it is the school picnic tomorrow. She is excited.

Then, she pays at the cashier. The things are forty-five dollars in total.

When she leaves the supermarket, she is careless. She drops the shopping bag and the eggs are broken! 'Oops!' cries Sally.

A shopkeeper comes. He looks at Sally. He is going to help Sally. He helps her tidy up the things and put them in the bags. He also gets her a free box of eggs. 'Thank you!' says Sally. 'You are welcome!' says the shopkeeper. Sally is happy at the end.

HI!

My favourite hobby

Ho Lok Yiu, Whitney (4A)

I like indoor activities. I like drawing pictures. I often do it with my noisy sister in the afternoon. We do it at home. Her picture is very ugly. My picture is very pretty. She likes drawing girls. I like drawing princesses.

I need coloured pencils, paper and pencils to draw pictures. Sometimes, I will use pens too. I like drawing because I can draw my feelings and record something I like in the picture. It is very relaxing!

School Sports Day

Lung Tsz Chun, Tony (4A)

Dear Aunt Lily,

How are you? Are you busy at work? Sorry for not writing to you before. I was busy preparing for Sports Day at my school. Let me tell you about it.

Our Sports Day took place in North District Sports Ground. Sports Day started at 9 o'clock. We went there on foot. We sat at the spectator stand.

The school principal, Miss Shum, opened the event. Everyone paid attention to her. There were special guests on Sports Day. We always watched the races and ate some snacks.

All the schoolmates were in the events. There were many events, such as the high jump, the long jump and the beanbag throwing event. Jack and Marvus were in the beanbag throwing event. Marvus threw farther than Jack. He threw the beanbag 24 metres from the starting point. He won the event. I felt happy on Sports Day.

Write to me when you have time. I'd love to hear from you.

Best,
Tony

A toy cat

Lai Kei Yu, Mary (4A)

27th October, 2023

Cloudy

I had a bad day today. In the morning, I went to a toy shop. The toy shop was very big. There were a lot of toys, such as toy cars, toy cats and toy dogs. I chose the toy cat and asked the shopkeeper, 'How much is it?' 'It is eighty dollars,' said the shopkeeper. It was very cheap and I bought it. I held the toy cat and it said hello to me. It could also sing, talk and walk. I was amazed!

In the afternoon, I needed to go to school. I put the toy cat in my school bag because I wanted to show it to my classmates. However, the toy cat was too big, so I couldn't zip it shut. I walked into the classroom. Suddenly, Anna shouted, 'Wow! A beautiful toy cat!' At this time, Miss Lo heard it. She took the toy cat and threw it into the rubbish bin. I was very sad!

What an unlucky day!

I had a bad day today.

Yesterday morning, I went to a toy shop. I saw a toy cat. It was only one hundred dollars. I bought it and took it home. I felt happy.

The toy cat could talk and clap. I felt amazed. I wanted to show it to my classmates, so I put it in my schoolbag and brought it to school this morning.

I showed it to my classmates during recess. Since it was lovely and beautiful, I wanted to show it to my friend.

In the end, my teacher found out I brought the toy cat to school. The teacher confiscated it. I felt sad and I will not bring toys to school ever again!

Growing up

Au Choi Faan, Kiwi (4B)

I am seven years old. A few months ago, I could not tie my shoelaces or bake cookies by myself. My sister, Sally, felt annoyed and angry. She said, 'You are seven years old. You need to do things by yourself.' I decided to make some changes.

Luckily, my mum was willing to teach me how to tie shoelaces and bake cookies. 30 minutes later, I knew how to tie shoelaces and bake cookies. It was easy. In the beginning, I thought it would be difficult. But it was easy instead.

Now, Dad and Mum are happy. Dad says, 'I do not know my son can do things better than me.' Mum says, 'You are my good son!' I have learned many things. I am happy!

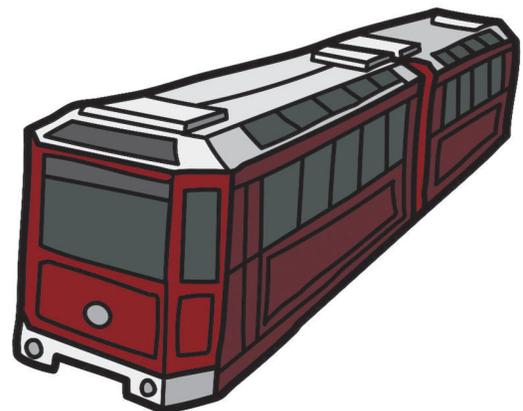

The Peak Tour

Chu Hoi Laam, Virginia (4B)

Our class is 4B. We are going to visit The Peak. We are going to meet at Central MTR station at ten o'clock in the morning. We are going to leave at eight o'clock at night.

In the morning, we are going to walk around The Peak Tower and visit Madame Tussauds. Then, my classmates and I will have lunch in a western restaurant at The Peak Tower. My classmates and I are going to order lobsters, pork chops and vegetables. At around two o'clock after lunch, we are going to take photos of Victoria Harbour. Around five past six, we are going to see the sunset. We will have dinner inside The Peak Tower afterward. We are going back to Central MTR station around eight o'clock at night.

I think The Peak Tour will be amazing!

I had a sad day today.

I went to a toy shop in the morning to buy a new toy. It was a large shop. I bought a robot cat. I was excited and thought that it was cute. The cat said, 'Hello!' I was very amazed. So I clapped and thought if I brought a robot cat to school, everyone around would be jealous of it.

Then, I brought it to school. At first, I felt happy but I was embarrassed after everyone was looking at me.

In the end, my teacher took away my toy. She told my mum about it. I was sad. I thought I would never bring toys to school.

Preparations for Open Day

Zheng Yu Sum, Madonna (4C)

1st February, 2024

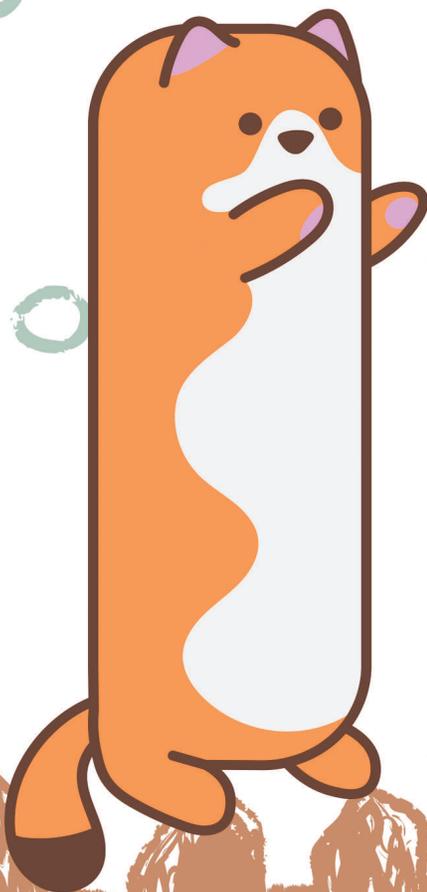

Cloudy

Open Day will take place on 19th February. Many guests, parents and people from the public will go to Open Day.

A lot of activities will be held. There will be a lucky draw, some magic shows and some bookmark-making workshops. They will be fun.

Before that day, we will do a lot of preparations. My classmates and I will be the school helpers. We will put out the chairs, wrap gifts and teach the guests how to make the bookmarks.

I will try my best to finish the preparations. I think I will be excited. I can't wait to join it.

Getting lost

Yao Xiao Qing, Christine (4C)

Phoebe and Annie were good friends. One day Phoebe called Annie. Phoebe asked, 'What are you going to do tomorrow?' Annie replied, 'I am going to play badminton tomorrow. Are you free? Let's play badminton together.' Phoebe replied, 'That's great! It's a good idea.'

They wanted to go to the sports centre. However, Phoebe did not know where the sports centre was. She asked, 'How do I get to the sports centre?' Annie replied, 'Go out of Kwai Fong MTR station Exit A. Turn left. Walk past the bakery. Turn right. Walk across the road. The sports centre is in front of you. See you there at two o'clock.' Phoebe said, 'See you tomorrow!'

The next day, Phoebe got lost in the street. She felt worried.

In the end, Phoebe asked the policeman outside the coffee shop. She asked politely, 'Excuse me, how do I get to the sports centre?' The policeman replied, 'Turn right. You can see the sports centre.' Phoebe said, 'Thank you very much!' Finally, Phoebe arrived at the sports centre at half past two. She played badminton with Annie happily.

School Sports Day

Kan Yi Yan, Lyan (4D)

Sports Day took place at the North District Sports Ground last Friday. I was very excited. I took part in the 100 m race. My friend, Lucas, also took part in the 100 m race. When it was my turn to race, I ran as fast as I could, but I couldn't win. Lucas won. He was the fastest. He beat me by one second.

Then, it was the 4 x 100 m relay. Mr. Hung chose who could take part in the 4 x 100 m relay. He said, 'I choose Lucas, May, Mia and Sam.' When I heard what he said, I was very disappointed.

In the end, when they were racing, Sam hurt himself. Therefore, Mr. Hung told me to replace Sam. Then, we won the race because of me. Mr. Hung said that he would pick me to take part in the 4 x 100 m relay again. I was filled with joy.

I had a great day on Sports Day.

An email to my friend

Hi Daisy,

Yesterday was my school Christmas party. Before the Christmas party, I went to a stationery shop and bought a Christmas gift. It was a desk calendar.

I went to school with my classmate, Joe, by school bus. On the way, we chatted and chatted. We were excited. I put the gift on the seat next to me. When we walked into the classroom, I saw our monitress, Amy, putting all the presents on the desk. Suddenly, I found that I had forgotten to bring my present which I left on the bus.

I ran out of the classroom. Luckily, the school bus was in the car park. I got back my present and had the party again. How about you? Do you have any interesting things about Christmas? Tell me next time.

Yours,
Evan

Getting lost

Phoebe and Annie were good friends. One day, Phoebe called Annie and asked, 'What are you going to do tomorrow?' Annie replied, 'I want to go to the sports centre and play badminton. Do you have free time? If you do, you can come and play badminton with me.' Phoebe said, 'Okay, I have free time, but I don't know how to get to the sports centre.' Annie said, 'First, you go out of Kwai Fong MTR station Exit A and walk along the street. Then, turn right and walk across the road. The sports centre will be in front of you.' Phoebe said, 'Okay, I understand!'

On the second day, Phoebe exclaimed, 'Oh no! I get lost!' She was very worried about being lost. At that moment, a man came toward her. Phoebe asked, 'Excuse me, how do I get to the sports centre?' The man replied, 'First, go straight ahead and walk along the road. You will see a hotel and a museum on your right. Walk across the second road, then turn right and walk past the bank. Turn right and walk past the convenience store. Walk across the road again, and the sports centre is in front of you.' Fifteen minutes later, Phoebe arrived at the sports centre and found Annie. They were extremely happy to see each other again.

A birthday party for Mum

Ha Ling Fung, Jerry (5A)

Today was my mum's birthday. My sister and I organized a surprise party for her. We made a to-do list to help us remember what we needed to do. We had to tidy the living room, buy some snacks, drinks and a birthday cake and write a birthday card.

When I was at ABC supermarket, my phone rang. 'Have you bought the snacks and drinks?' my sister asked. 'Yes, I have. Have you tidied up the living room yet?' I asked. 'Yes, I have also designed a birthday card for Mum!' she replied. In the evening, the birthday party started. My dad asked me quietly, 'Where is the cake?' I shouted, 'Oh, no! I forgot to buy the cake!' My dad and sister were very disappointed.

Suddenly, the doorbell rang. I opened the door immediately. A man was standing outside the door with a beautiful cake. I remembered that we are VIPs at a bakery near our house, so we can get a free cake on our birthdays. It was really a big surprise for all of us!

A recipe

Lai Cho Kiu, April (5A)

First, cut the butter into cubes and let it sit for a few minutes.

Then, mix the flour, sugar, salt, butter and sour cream together.

After that, knead the dough into a ball and refrigerate it.

Next, slice the apples into pieces.

Then, roll out one disc of dough into a 12-inch circle. Transfer it to a 9-inch pie plate. Trim the edges to fit the plate.

Next, add the apple filling into the crust and cover it with another disc of dough. Bake for 20 minutes.

Finally, serve the pie.

Ingredients

- 1 apple
- 2 cups flour
- 4 eggs
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- a little butter
- 1 tablespoon salt
- $\frac{1}{2}$ cup sour cream

Life then and now

Kwan Sin Yu, Sherry (5A)

Many things have changed over the years in Hong Kong. There has been a big change in people's lives throughout the past and at present because of the development of technology.

Technology has changed our lives in different ways. For communication, people wrote letters to their friends with a pen and paper in the past, while people send text messages on their mobile phones to communicate with their friends nowadays. Also, everyone can have face-to-face gatherings with their friends by using a smartphone.

As for school life, people studied in roof-top schools in the past. Nowadays, everyone studies on big school campuses. In the past, there were no after-school activities, whereas now, there are different after-school activities nowadays. There are dancing clubs, football clubs and English drama clubs at our school.

I love to live in the present day because things are modern. You can do anything that you want. It is much more convenient and comfortable nowadays!

A family camp

Gu Ming Xuan, Eric (5B)

Spencer went to a family camp with his parents. They were looking at a poster of horse-riding at a family camp on Hong Kong Island. Then, Spencer saw a boy with a cap and wanted to join the activity with him. Spencer said, 'Would you like to join the horse-riding class with us?' 'Yes, I'd love to,' the boy replied. The boy introduced himself. His name was Bob.

'Have you ever ridden a horse?' Spencer said. 'I have ridden a horse once. It was exciting!' Bob replied. Soon the time passed very fast, they learned to ride horses and they felt very happy.

Lastly, they went to drink some tea and they were very happy.

Yesterday was my birthday. And it went great!

On my birthday, my dad, mum, sister and I went to Ocean Park to celebrate my 11th birthday. First, we went to see some sea animals, such as penguins, dolphins, starfish and colorful fish. They were so pretty! Then, we went to a restaurant near Ocean Park. For starters, we had vegetable soup and eggs. For the main courses, we had grilled steak and fried fish. For the desserts, we had a vanilla sundae and drank fruit juice. It was delicious!

In the past, we went to Ocean Park once a year, and it hasn't changed. I'm happy that I got to go there yesterday!

My brave dog saved a lady!

Wong Yat Him, Padro (5B)

Believe it or not, even a small dog can do a great job!

Yesterday, I walked my dog, Andy, in the park. The air was fresh and the trees were beautiful. I played some games with Andy. I felt relaxed and it felt happy. Suddenly, I saw a robber jumping out from the bushes. He was pointing a knife at a woman and the woman said, 'Don't hurt me. I'll give you all my money.'

After that, the robber ran away because Andy was running after him. In the end, the police came to arrest the robber.

The police said, 'Andy, good job!'

Beef Burger

Law Wai Chun, Andy (5C)

Instructions:

1. First, chop a few onions and carrots. Boil them in hot water until soft.
2. Then, heat a pan for two minutes. Add oil to the hot pan.
3. Next, put the beef into the pan. Fry the beef on both sides until golden brown.
4. After that, take a round loaf and spread some butter on it.
5. Next, put the carrots, onions, a piece of beef, some lettuce and add some mayonnaise to the loaf.
6. Then, put another round loaf on top.
7. Finally, microwave it for ten seconds before serving.

Suggestions:

- You can sprinkle some white sesame seeds on top of the loaf for extra flavour.
- You can season the loaf with a lot of pepper if you wish.

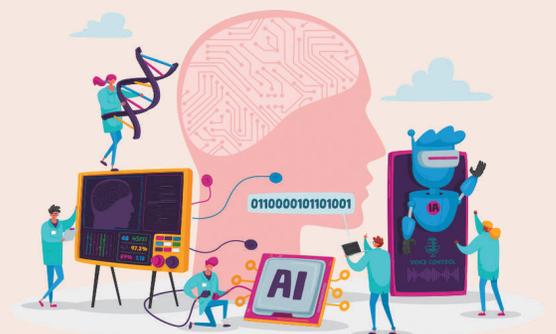

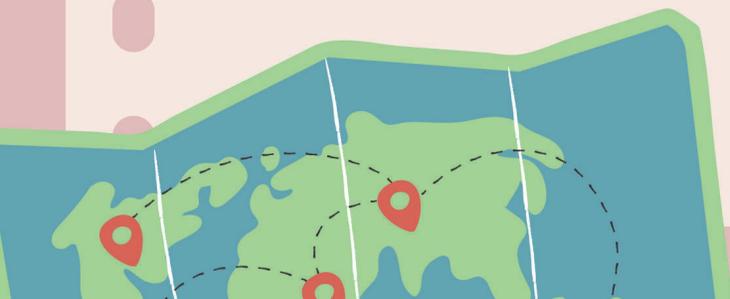

Life then and now

Ma Nim Chi, Nana (5C)

There are a lot of changes between now and before. Everyone paid by cash for shopping in the past. Everyone likes online shopping nowadays. People also pay through apps for shopping. Moreover, students usually went to school on foot, by bus or by bicycle in the past. Most students go to school by MTR nowadays. In the past, everyone kept cool with a paper fan, but nowadays, everyone keeps cool with an air-conditioner.

Technology has changed our lives to become more convenient and comfortable. I prefer life now because it is modern and well-developed.

A diary entry: My birthday

Yeung Yim Chi, Samuel (5C)

9th December, 2023

Sunny

Today is my birthday. I was so excited. I went to Ocean Park with my family. We arrived there at half past ten in the morning.

First, we went to Ocean Theatre for a sea animal show, some sea lions performed well. Suddenly, some dolphins came out from the water. They swam beautifully, but some water splashed onto my T-shirt three times! I liked the shows but I didn't want the dolphins to make me wet.

Later on, we went to Cafe Ocean to have a big lunch. We ordered a garden salad for a starter and roast chicken for the main course. When we were waiting for the food, I saw my best friend, Leo. He also had lunch at the cafe. He came with his family. Finally, they joined us and celebrated my birthday. They sang a birthday song for me. Then, we ate the food together.

What an amazing day! I was glad to see Leo at Ocean Park and we had a lot of fun. I hope I can go to Disneyland again on my birthday next year.

A family camp

Zhuo Meng Xin, Canny (5D)

Spencer went to a family camp with his parents. They looked at a poster on the noticeboard. It was about a horse-riding class. Spencer saw a boy with a cap also looking at the poster. Both of them wanted to join this activity.

'Would you like to join the horse-riding class with me?' Spencer asked. 'Yes, I'd like to,' the boy replied. They felt excited. Then, Spencer asked the boy, 'Have you ever ridden a horse?' 'Yes, I've ridden a horse once. It's exciting!' the boy answered.

After that, Spencer and the boy learned to ride the horses. They learned to give orders to the horses. They thought it was funny.

Finally, the boy watched the sunset and had a BBQ with Spencer's family. They were happy.

Healthy advice for my friend

Tsui Ching To, Twinkle (5D)

You usually eat fried food and meat. You don't like vegetables. It is not healthy. I suggest you to eat less fried food and meat. You always drink coke or milkshakes. They are too sweet. You should drink more water or fresh juice.

Also, you often sit on the sofa all day. I think you should move more. You should do more exercise. Doing more exercise can help you keep fit and grow taller. If you feel bored, you can do it with your family. I suggest you to play basketball or football three times a week to make more friends.

If you can change your eating habits and living styles, I believe your health problems will be improved and you will be more confident to make friends with others.

My brave dog saved a lady!

Koo Hoi Yan, Angel (5D)

Believe it or not, even a small dog can do a great job!

Yesterday, I walked my dog Cenny in the park near my home in the afternoon. The environment was peaceful. I felt relaxed.

Suddenly, I saw a robber. He was pointing a knife at a woman. He wanted to rob her. I was frightened. 'Don't hurt me! I will give you all my belongings,' the woman cried. The woman handed over her handbag. She was scared.

Then, the robber ran away quickly after grabbing the woman's handbag. Cenny chased after him and barked at him. The robber was annoyed and tried to beat Cenny. It was angry and bit the robber.

In the end, I called 999 and the police came and arrested the robber. The police bought some treats for Cenny. It was overjoyed. The woman got back her handbag and thanked me for calling the police. I was delighted.

Feeling sick

Hu Charlie Ka Yeung (6A)

18th September, Monday

Cloudy

I was absent from school this morning. When I woke up, I felt absolutely awful! My nose was really runny and I felt very hot throughout my body. My mum took my temperature and it was 39°C. When my mum saw what my temperature was, she was devastated. She immediately rushed to get an ice bag and put it on my forehead. 'Come on, let's go to see a doctor. Remember Dr Hu? He can help you feel better,' my mum said.

After we arrived at the clinic, my mum registered at the reception counter. The nurse politely told us to wait at the waiting area. There were other patients there. One of the patients kept coughing and sneezing, another patient had a stomachache. They all seemed to be very uncomfortable.

After an hour of waiting, it was finally my turn. We walked into Dr. Hu's office. 'Oh, hello again Tony. It's good to see you again! What's the matter with you today?' said Dr. Hu. My mum replied, 'Well, he has a fever and a runny nose.' 'OK. Let me examine you. Ah, I see. There's nothing to worry about. It's the classic case of the common cold. You should take more rest and take these medicines on time, take one for your cold and one for your fever. Please follow what the label says. You should eat fruit and vegetables, they are good for your health,' Dr. Hu said. 'Thanks, Dr. Hu!' my mum replied.

When we got home, my mum told me to rest in bed while she made some salad and cooked some congee for me. After the meal, I took the medicine and drank some warm water. Then, I went back to bed.

I still don't feel great, but I'm feeling much better. I'm grateful for having a caring mother and I hope I will get better soon.

A detective story about a smartphone theft

Zheng Ziyu, Samuel (6A)

Yesterday at three o'clock in the afternoon, a lady called Mary went out of Rose Restaurant after having her lunch. Suddenly, a man rushed towards her and grabbed her smartphone in a flash. He ran away quickly and disappeared from her sight in a few seconds. Mary was so afraid that she shivered and ran back to the restaurant to borrow a phone. She dialled 999 and called the police immediately.

Soon, Detective Mel, who was from the police came to Rose Restaurant first. Mary was in relief. 'Thank you for coming so fast!' Mary said thankfully with tears in her eyes. 'Don't worry, the police and I will find your smartphone as soon as possible,' Detective Mel said. She asked Mary to describe the thief. Mary said that the thief was wearing a pair of sunglasses, a pair of jeans and sandals.

Later, the police arrived and Detective Mel ordered them to find the people who had similar clothing as Mary described before. After a while, three suspects were standing behind them. Detective Mel, the police and Mary were all confused about who the true criminal was. 'It can't be the old suspect. He can't run that fast after stealing my phone at his age!' Mary told Detective Mel. 'If not, the thief is a young man?' Detective Mel said.

In a sudden, Detective Mel's smart brain had an idea. 'How about you call your phone so that you can know which suspect robbed your phone?' Detective Mel whispered to Mary. Mary thought it was a great idea and followed what she said. Sure enough, the phone of the old suspect rang! 'Oh! It is you! I'm so surprised!' Mary cried. In the end, the phone was given back to Mary. The old criminal was taken up to the police car saying something in a low voice, 'I hate you, Detective Mel...'

A special festival

Oktoberfest is a special festival that is celebrated by people in Germany. It is celebrated from late September to early October. It is very important to the Germans.

There is a lot of preparation work before the festival. People need to build large tents. Tables and chairs are put inside the tents by the Germans. Thousands of people will rush to the tents. It will be as crowded as the Disneyland.

Different activities are held during the festival, such as music shows, light shows, plays and even competitions between the Germans. Most of the shows are free but people need to pay if they want to play the exciting rides.

Drinking beer is essential to this festival, so you can enjoy a variety of German beers and delicious food, such as white sausages and roasted pork.

For those who love beer, participating in Oktoberfest allows them to try more beers from different regions and producers, and learn about different types and styles of beer, while also networking and sharing experiences with other beer lovers.

Everyone has a great time at this festival. From playing to eating and drinking. What a wonderful festival!

A theft

Last week, Sandy was enjoying a delicious strawberry-flavoured ice cream, walking along Fressia Street. All of a sudden, a strange man bumped into her. She dropped her ice cream on the floor.

The man did not stop running. Sandy shook a fist at him and glanced at him angrily. 'Why do you do this? My ice cream is ruined now,' she shouted at the man but he didn't respond to her. Sandy was furious! The man was carrying a handbag and rushed into a shopping centre. She did not know why he was in a rush. Was he trying to save someone?

At that time, Sandy looked at her messy ice cream sadly. Suddenly, a police officer came and told her to describe the man who bumped into her. That rude man was a thief! 'He was in a blue T-shirt, green shorts and sandals. He has messy brown hair and was with sunglasses,' Sandy said to the police officer. He thanked her and went into the shopping centre at once.

In the end, the police officer arrested the thief. 'Wait a minute, whose red handbag is this?' Sandy asked the police officer. 'It belongs to a woman called Miss Wong,' he responded. 'Oh, that's my mum's! No wonder it looks so familiar!' Sandy said as she laughed. The police officer gave the handbag to her. Sandy returned it to her mum.

Dear Diary,

Today Ken and I went to the bookshop after lunch. When we were looking at the book, a man came in with a black cap and a grey T-shirt. At that time, a woman standing opposite us opened her handbag and forgot to close it.

When the woman was looking for the book she liked, the man kept staring at her opened handbag. He looked suspicious but the woman did not notice him.

After a while, the woman concentrated on reading and the man went near her. He put his hand into her handbag and took the woman's iPhone. Ken and I noticed that and we both felt shocked. The woman did not know that.

In the end, we told the security guard about what we saw. The man noticed us and tried to run to the exit of the bookshop. The woman shouted, 'Please help me! He stole my phone! He wants to escape.' I stepped forward and put out a leg in silence... The thief did not see my leg and tripped over.

Finally, the thief returned the phone to the woman and was sent to the police station. The woman thanked us.

I learned to keep an eye on my belongings.

A special festival

Day of the Dead is a special festival that is celebrated in Mexico. It is celebrated by the Mexican people.

Day of the Dead is celebrated on 2nd November. It is a traditional Mexican holiday. During the holiday, Mexicans celebrate the completion of the life cycle with joy and music welcoming the annual reunion of the living and the dead. Mexicans sing and dance all night long to celebrate the holiday with their dead loved ones and good friends.

Before Day of the Dead, people would get skeleton costumes and white paint to make skeletons on their faces and bodies. They also decorate their homes with skeletons and pots of white flowers. People go to the churches to make a wish for their families and friends or their dead family members.

Day of the Dead is celebrated all over Mexico. Men, women and children dress up and dance in the street at night. They watch the light parade too! People light the lanterns to light the road for their family members to go home, both the living and the dead.

At this festival, people like to eat some candies, skull-shaped cakes and caramel apples. People feel warm, glad and cheerful. What a special festival in the world!

Forces of nature

One day, Lily encountered a donation box, and she just looked at it and shook her head before leaving. She was selfish. Lily did not realize that helping people was meaningful.

The next day, Lily watched a documentary on TV. In the documentary, it recorded that an earthquake occurred in a place in Japan. The household bookshelf trembled, the chandelier was swaying and one person panicked. Lily felt bored and turned off the TV.

After Lily went to bed, she dreamed that her house had collapsed and could only live in a tent and used a cushion as a quilt to cover her body. It was very cold. She felt very frightened. Then, she awoke.

Finally, she said, 'If I donate money to the charity, I can help the victims of the earthquake.' She returned to the donation box immediately and donated two hundred dollars. The donation was for daily necessities and clothing for the victims of the earthquake. Lily became selfless and willing to help others.

Chinese New Year is a special festival that is celebrated by people in China. It is celebrated in January or February. People celebrate it because it can remove the bad and old things and welcome the new and good things.

Before Chinese New Year, people will clean their houses, prepare red envelopes, and buy some new red clothes and all kinds of candies. People will also watch lion dances and dragon dances, visit temples, play mahjong and say New Year greetings. Traditional food like sticky rice cakes, carrot cakes and sweet dumplings are served.

My family is very special! We hold a big lottery and put some red envelopes into it and see who gets the most money.

In the end, people will be very happy and look forward to having good luck in the new year.

Laura and her costume

Chau Chi Hin, Ivan (6C)

It's the school Halloween party and costume competition next week, Laura saw the poster and selected a dress that she wanted to buy, but she couldn't buy the dress, because the dress was very expensive. The price of the dress was two hundred dollars, but Laura only had one hundred dollars.

Laura felt disappointed because she couldn't buy the dress. Suddenly, she had a great idea, she planned to turn a plastic bag into a skirt, paper into a hat and a stick and some paper strips into a broom.

She planned to use a pair of scissors to cut the plastic bag into a long skirt, then used a piece of cardboard to make a hat and used a stapler to staple the hat. Then, she used some sellotape to stick the paper strips to the wooden stick.

She went to the activity center to show her handmade costume to her classmates confidently.

In the end, other students were all envious of her ability to make such a beautiful costume, so everyone said they would also make their costumes for next year's Halloween party.

Laura and her costume

Chow Hoi Yu, Stella (6D)

Laura wanted to go to the school Halloween party next week. She wanted to join the party, but she could not buy the costume because it was too expensive! The costume is $200 but she has only $100.

Laura had an idea! She decided to make the costume by herself. The costume is made from a plastic bag, a stick and some paper strips.

Then, Laura made her costume soon. She used a plastic bag to make the dress. She rolled the cardboard into a hat. Next, she used the paper strips to make the broom. She dressed up herself and she went to the party.

Finally, she lost the competition but her friend praised her creativity.

Feeling sick

Sunny

I was absent from school this morning.

I wasn't feeling well in the morning. I couldn't go to school. I've got a fever, a runny nose, a sore throat and a serious headache. So my mum took me to the clinic.

When I got there, I had to wait for an hour because so many patients were sick! A man was coughing without a mask and there was a girl who had a stomachache! I felt terrible waiting there.

At last, I finally got to see the doctor and he said, 'You need to stay at home for a week! You have a serious headache right now.' My friends messaged me on my laptop and they wished me a speedy recovery, so they could see me again.

A detective story about a smartphone theft

Lam Hiu Tung, Hugo (6D)

Yesterday at three o'clock in the afternoon, there was a theft outside the Rose Restaurant. A man took a woman's mobile phone.

Then, the woman was shocked and asked a shopkeeper for help.

The woman went to Rose Restaurant and called the police.

Ten minutes later, Detective Mel arrived. The woman was happy when she saw Detective Mel.

Next, the woman described the thief. The man was in jeans and sandals, with short hair and sunglasses. After that, Detective Mel caught three men who were matching the descriptions. But they looked similar. The woman could not identify the thief.

Then, Detective Mel got an idea! She dialed the woman's phone number. 'Ring, ring...'

In the end, they found the man drinking was the thief. The woman got back her smartphone and Detective Mel sent the thief to the police station.
