I had a bad day today.

Yesterday, I went to a toy shop because I wanted to buy a toy. In the toy shop, I saw a cute robot cat. It was 1036 dollars. I bought it and brought it home. When I got home, I turned on the robot cat. Suddenly, it said 'Hello!' to me. I felt amazed.

This morning, I brought the robot cat to school. Students came to see my robot cat. I felt happy.

Suddenly, the teacher saw the robot cat. The teacher was very angry. She took my robot cat. Then, she called my parents to pick me up later. I stayed at school for an hour after school today because I brought a robot cat to school. I felt sad.
