A busy week

Cheng Tsz Yu, Kary (2A)

My friends and I are busy this week.

Tim reads books in the library on Monday. He likes to read. He likes to read storybooks. Fiona watches films on Tuesday. She likes watching films with her family. Sue has a dancing lesson on Wednesday. Lily has a dancing lesson on Wednesday too. They are very happy. Linda has a piano lesson on Thursday. She plays the piano very well. Kelly and Ada visit their grandparents on Friday. They love their grandparents. I go to the park on Saturday. The swings are funny. I love to have fun there.

My family member's job

Lai Cho Kiu, April (2A)

I want to write about my mother. She is a shopkeeper. She sells things and she goes to work at seven o'clock in the morning. She can wear her own clothes, like a T-shirt and jeans at work.

I do not want to do her job because my mother wants me to be a doctor when I grow up.

My favourite season

Li Tin Yu, Jamie (2A)

My favourite season is spring. It usually starts from February and ends in April.

It is warm and wet in spring. I often wear a T-shirt. It is the perfect time to watch insects in this season.

I like spring because there are so many insects popping up in the nature after winter.

A busy week

Ha Ling Fung, Jerry (2B)

Sue has a dancing lesson on Wednesday. Lily has a dancing lesson on Wednesday too. They are very happy. Linda has a piano lesson on Thursday. She is good at playing piano. Kelly and Ada visit their grandparents on Friday. They love their grandparents. I go to the park with my parents on Saturday. I am happy. I do my homework on Sunday. My homework isn't hard.

My friends and I are happy this week.

My favourite season

Wu Yu Tung, Cherry (2B)

My favourite season is autumn. It is cool and windy in autumn.

I usually wear a green jacket and a pair of blue jeans. I ride a bicycle and fly kites in a park. I love the kites. There is a beautiful mermaid on it.

I like autumn because I can see red or yellow leaves in the park.

My favourite season

Cheung Sze Chum. Debbie (2B)

My favourite season is spring. It's warm and wet. I wear a T-shirt and jeans. In spring, I go on picnics with my family. We bring sandwiches, doughnuts, bananas and puddings. I like eating doughnuts and bananas. They are delicious. I also go to the flower shows. I see lots of colourful flowers. They're beautiful.

I like spring because there are lots of flowers and trees. Spring has many colour, such as pink, green and yellow. I like colourful spring!

Lily's birthday party

Hayley Tang (2C)

It is Lily's birthday today. She has a birthday party at home. She invites her friends to come to her party.

Lily's mum makes a chocolate cake for her because she loves chocolate flavour. Her dad buys sandwiches and some snacks such as potato chips, sweets and biscuits for the party. The food tastes delicious. Lily and her friends drink lots of cola and eat lots of delicious food. Then, they play games in the park. After that, they sing a birthday song to Lily and the party ends at about five o'clock in the afternoon. Lily feels happy today. Her friends feel happy too. They have fun.

My favourite season

Law Wai Chun, Andy (2C)

My favourite season is winter. It is cold and windy. I usually wear long coats. The long coats help to keep me warm in cold weather. I like eating hotpot and drinking hot chocolate in winter.

Sometimes, my family will take me to see the ice sculpture exhibitions in China. I can see many special and beautiful ice sculptures there. I like winter because it is the perfect time to eat hotpot and spend time with my family. The food is delicious. Moreover, Christmas is also in winter. I can get a lot of Christmas gifts. I love winter very much.

Lily's birthday party

Choi Ngai Fei, Faye (2D)

It is Lily's birthday today. She has a birthday party at home. Her friends Tommy, Jerry and Sarah go to her party.

They eat some chips, sweets, sandwiches, cookies and a big birthday cake in the party. They drink some lemon tea and apple juice too. The food is yummy and delicious. Lily and her friends enjoy the food.

In the end, Lily's friends sing a song to her. They give her some gifts and play games with her. Lily feels happy and excited.

Two teddy bears

Lee Cheuk Ying, Selina (2D)

Jenny and Jack have two teddy bears. Their names are Bella and Ted.

One afternoon, the family are not at home. The two bears feel bored in the bedroom and want to have fun.

The bears pull out many clothes from the closet. Bella likes the black cap. It has triangles on it. Then, the bears find two scarves. Their colours are different. One is red and the other is white. Ted chooses the red one. It has circles on it. The bears do not stop there. They take out two nice jackets too! Bella thinks the pink one looks attractive. It has stars on it.

Just as the bears are getting more excited, Jenny and Jack come back home! They see Bella and Ted choosing their favourite clothes. They are angry because the room is so messy. The bears say 'sorry' to Jenny and Jack and tidy up the room at once.

The lion and the mouse

Hu Yixin, Eva (3A)

Once upon a time, there was a mouse. He was naughty. One day, he jumped and played on the sleeping lion's tummy. The lion was angry. The lion wanted to eat the mouse. 'Please, don't eat me. I may help you in the future!' said the mouse. The mouse begged the lion to forgive him. The lion was kind and friendly. Then, the lion let the mouse go.

A few days later, the lion was in the hunter's net. He shouted for help, but there was no one or animal to help him. At this time, the mouse came over. He bit through the rope.

In the end, the lion appreciated the mouse. So, the lion gave him a wreath and made friends with him. The lion and the mouse were very happy.

The moral of the fable is 'If you are nice to people and people will be nice to you too'.

At the supermarket

Lin Yu Tung, Tom (3A)

Sally is at the supermarket. She wants to buy some food. She wants to buy a box of eggs, two cans of cola and three packets of potato chips. It is because there is a family cookout tomorrow. She is excited.

Then, she pays at the cashier. 'How much are they altogether?' asks Sally. 'They are forty-five dollars in total, thank you!' says the cashier.

When Sally leaves the supermarket, she drops her bag and breaks the eggs. She is very worried. 'Oop!' shouts Sally.

Luckily, just at this time, her father calls and tells her, 'Our chicken lays a lot of eggs this morning. Ha! Ha! Ha!' Sally is very happy because she doesn't need to worry about the eggs.

Giant pandas

Zheng Zi Yu, Samuel (3B)

Giant pandas are black and white. They live in forests. They have short and small tails. They are about one hundred and eighty centimetres tall. They weigh about one hundred and ten kilograms. Giant pandas eat bamboos. They don't need to drink water very often because they can get water from the bamboos they eat.

Giant pandas are known as a national treasure of China. We can't harm them because they are rare. We need to protect them. We can visit the giant pandas at the wild zoos.

People think that giant pandas are cute, friendly and quiet animals.

Classroom Cleaning Day

Hu Charlie Ka Yeung (3B)

Today is Classroom Cleaning Day. It is from ten o'clock to eleven o'clock in the morning. 'I hope you can all help to clean the classroom today!' says our class teacher, Mrs. Lam. Sally, Sophia and I pick up the cleaning supplies. Then, we start to clean up the classroom.

First, Sophia uses a broom to sweep the classroom floor. Then, Sally uses a duster to clean the blackboard. After that, I use a towel to wipe the students' desks. We are happy and hardworking.

Suddenly, a wasp flies through the window into the classroom and makes everything dirty again. We are frightened and we run out of the classroom into the staff room to find Mrs. Lam.

In the end, Mrs. Lam gets a net from the storage room and catches the wasp. Then, she sets the wasp free. We are overjoyed and we can help to clean up the classroom again!

The school picnic

Pong Kwan Yee, Karen (3C)

It is the school picnic at Zoe's school. Zoe and her classmates go to Sai Kung Country Park by a coach. They are excited.

They have a picnic. They are hungry. Zoe flies a kite. She is happy.

Suddenly, the thread is broken and Zoe's kite is in the tree. She is worried. 'Oh no!' says Zoe. She wants to get her kite but she is not tall enough.

In the end, the wind blows the kite into Zoe's hand. She can fly her kite again and she is happy now.

The lion and the mouse

Yang Yahan, Livia (3C)

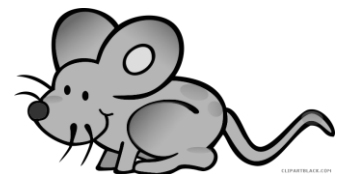

Once upon a time, there was a mouse. He was quite naughty but friendly.

One day, when the lion was sleeping, the mouse jumped and played on the lion's tummy. The lion woke up and he was angry. He wanted to eat the mouse. The mouse begged the lion to forgive him. The lion was kind and let the mouse go.

A week later, the lion was careless and he was caught by a net. He shouted for help but no one came to help. The mouse helped the lion to escape.

In the end, the mouse was invited by the lion. The lion gave the mouse a big meal. The mouse was happy and excited.

The moral of the fable is 'Kindness is never wasted'.

Windy

I got hurt during the school picnic today!

We arrived at Sai Kung Country Park at ten o'clock in the morning. The weather was windy. I flew kites with my friends, Alan and Sam. We all felt overjoyed.

At eleven o'clock, we found a picnic spot and we saw some tall green trees and beautiful flowers. We had sandwiches, chicken wings and sushi for lunch. We all felt relaxed.

In the afternoon, we played football. Suddenly, Alan kicked the ball to me but I tripped over the ball. I fell down and hurt my leg. I cried, 'Ouch!' Alan was sorry and asked me, 'Are you okay? Do you get hurt?' I said, 'I am okay but my leg gets hurt.' I felt painful and sad.

Luckily, our class teacher saw me. He helped Alan and Sam to take me to a nearby bench. He ran towards to the school bus and took the medical bag. Then, he ran back to the bench. He asked me, 'Where do you get hurt?' I replied, 'I get hurt on the football field. I hurt my knee.' My teacher bandaged my leg. It took about five minutes. At last, my teacher asked me, 'Can you walk now?' I said, 'I can walk now.' I thanked my teacher and friends for helping me. What a way to end the picnic day!

A visit to Grace Children's Centre

He Yi Han, Bonnie (3D)

On Sunday, my mother, brother and I visited Grace Children's Centre. I got up early in the morning to pack my things and got ready to go.

First, we handed out a lot of gifts to the children. They thanked us and treated us some delicious food. Then, we danced. The children loved our dancing and they all laughed. After lunch, we cleaned the floor and played games with the children. I shared a lot of storybooks with them. They were excited.

I enjoyed the visit very much. I want to do more to help them. I want to visit them next time.

A day on Little Green Farm

Xu Susan (4A)

18th June, 2021

Cloudy

Today, I went to Little Green Farm with my classmate, Nancy. We went there by bus. We went there because we had to do a project about organic farming. When we arrived there, we saw some animals and fruit trees.

First, we went to the vegetable fields. We watered the vegetables and bought some fresh vegetables. After that, we went to the fruit garden. We picked the apples carefully. Then, we played with the farm animals happily. We fed the rabbits and the goat gently.

Suddenly, I heard someone screaming. I worried the scream was from Nancy. It was from her! The goat bit her hand when she fed it. The farmer helped Nancy quickly. Then, he gave each of us a souvenir.

Finally, we finished the project perfectly. We enjoyed going to Little Green Farm. What a happy day!

Nature Exploring Tour

Peng Ho Li, Holi (4A)

Our class is 4A. We are going to visit some interesting places. I am going to go with my classmates and teachers. We are going to meet on the school playground at ten past eight. We are going to go to all the places by coach.

In the morning, we are going to visit Mai Po because we can see some uncommon animals and we can also take photos of them.

Then, we are going to have lunch at half past twelve. I like the lunch because it includes my favourite hamburger. After lunch, we are going to visit Sai Kung Country Park. We are going to explore nature there. We can learn about the plants in Hong Kong!

In the end, we are going to go back to school at half past three. It must be an interesting tour!

Growing up

Ge Yung (4A)

Friday, 16th April

Sunny

My name is Tom. I am seven and I can do a lot of things by myself. Let me tell you about it.

A few months ago, I couldn't do anything. My sister said, 'How can you be alone if you can't do anything? That's crazy!' When I heard that, I felt sad. I thought I needed to learn something. Then, I started to learn things.

At first, I learned how to tie my shoelaces. My mom demonstrated and I followed her step by step. By the way, I faced some problems. It was not easy for me to catch my shoelaces. Luckily, my mom helped me. It was a bit difficult, so I used about ten minutes to tie them. I think it's interesting but not easy.

Now, I can tie my shoelaces, tidy my room and prepare my lunch box by myself. I am no longer a person who can do nothing. I'm happy. My dad, my mom and my sister are all proud of me.

At the Food Festival

Chan Yuk Fung, Andy (4A)

Alice is Joyce's friend. She is visiting Joyce in Hong Kong. Joyce took Alice to a food festival in Kowloon Bay yesterday. They felt happy.

At the food festival, Joyce would like to have a slice of pizza and Alice would like some salad. And they also ordered two cans of cola. Both of them enjoyed their food. They thought the food was tasty. After that, they went to another food stall. The cook asked them if they wanted some beef satay. They refused politely and chose two baked oysters instead. However, the baked oysters were very oily that they couldn't eat them. Therefore, they put them into a dustbin. Then, they bought a lot of food at other food stalls, such as sushi, spring rolls, grilled octopus, etc. They were delicious.

Finally, they left at five o'clock. The food festival gave them a lot of fun. It was a pleasant day for them!

A place in Hong Kong

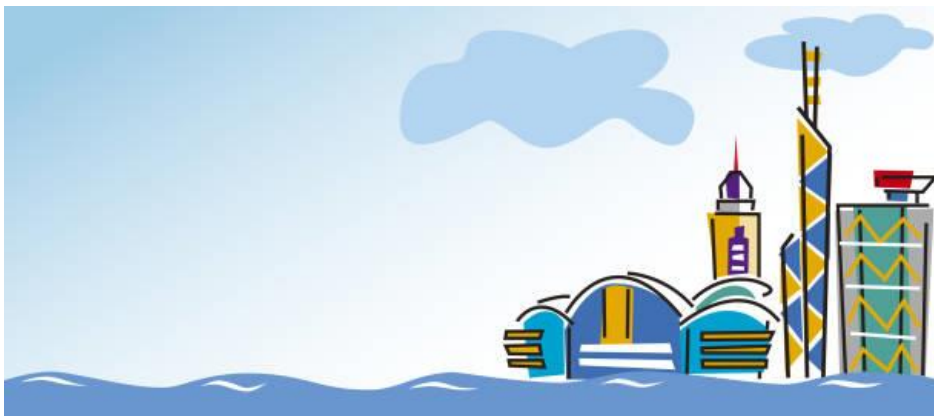

Shi Yiqian, Jane (4A)

Victoria Harbour is a famous harbour in Hong Kong. It is between Hong Kong Island and Kowloon. You can walk from Tsim Sha Tsui MTR Station to get there.

When you go on the Star Ferry ride, you can have a close look at the harbour. I recommend Victoria Harbour because it is beautiful. When the weather is good, you can see the blue sky, white clouds and clear water in the daytime. It is once listed as one of the 50 must-see spots in life by National Geographic.

At night, you can watch the fantastic light show ‘A Symphony of Lights’ at 8 p.m. I think it is attractive and you will be amazed by the coloured lights and laser beams accompanied by music.

I think this place is the most wonderful place in Hong Kong.

Sam's Corner: A cooking class

Ng Hin Wing, Rain (4A)

My mother and I had a cooking class in a children's centre today. We made a cake there. We needed flour, butter and two eggs to make the cake. My mother beat the eggs and I mixed the flour and butter. We got all the things together to bake a cake. Then, my mother put the cake into the oven. I felt excited.

After one hour, I saw some black smoke coming out from the oven. I felt scared. My mother turned off the oven quickly. In the end, the smell of the cake was bad and its colour was black because it was overbaked. I felt sad.

Stanley Market Tour

Du Xiran, Steven (4B)

Our class is 4B. We are going to visit Stanley Market. We choose Stanley Market because we like shopping and swimming. We are going to go with our friends.

We are going to meet at nine o'clock in the morning at Central MTR station. Then, we are going to go there by bus. After that, we are going to go shopping at a quarter past ten in the morning. Next, we are going to have lunch at an Italian Restaurant at twenty past twelve in the afternoon.

After lunch, we are going to go swimming and take photos at ten to two in the afternoon. Next, we are going to leave Stanley Market at a quarter past five in the evening. In the end, we are going to arrive back at Central MTR Station at half past six in the evening.

We will enjoy the tour and have fun.

Growing up

Zhou Aili (4B)

16th April, 2021, Friday

Cloudy

I am now seven years old and I can do many things by myself. But a few months ago, I couldn't tie my shoelaces. I couldn't prepare my lunch box either. Mum had to help me all the time.

Sally was angry because she thought I should do these things by myself. She said, 'When I was five, I could tie my shoelaces. When I was six, I could prepare my lunch box. You must learn to do these things by yourself!'

I felt sad and decided to learn to do things by myself. Now I can tie my shoelaces and prepare my lunch box myself. I needed Mum's help a few months ago, but now I can do lots of things by myself. Mum, Dad and Sally are proud of me!

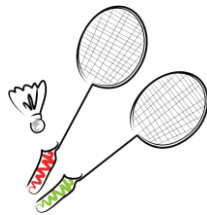

Getting lost

Lu Bing Hong, Ken (4C)

Phoebe and Annie were good friends. One day, Phoebe called Annie. Phoebe asked, 'What are you going to do tomorrow?' Annie replied, 'I am going to play badminton with my friends. Would you like to play together?' 'Sure. How do I get to the sports centre?' Phoebe said. 'First, take the MTR to Kwai Fong. Then, go out of Kwai Fong MTR station Exit A. Next, turn left and walk past the bakery. Walk across the road and the sports centre is in front of you,' Annie said. 'Okay. See you tomorrow,' said Phoebe.

The next day, Phoebe went to Kwai Fong Sports Centre by herself. However, she got lost on the way to the sports centre. She stood in front of the convenience store. She felt worried. Phoebe called Annie, 'I am lost. Could you help me?' 'Tell me where you are now,' said Annie. 'In front of the convenience store,' said Phoebe. 'The sports centre is opposite the convenience store. You walk across the road and the sports centre is in front of you.' In the end, Phoebe found the sports centre. She had a good time with Annie there.

Lantau Island Tour

Chen Ham, Mandy (4C)

Our class is 4C. We are going to visit Lantau Island. We are going to go with our teachers. We are going to meet at Shek Wu Hui Public School at eight o'clock.

In the morning, we are going to visit Tai O. We are going to arrive there at nine o'clock. We are going to watch Chinese white dolphins and stilt houses there. Then, we are going to visit Ngong Ping. We are going to arrive there at half past ten. We are going to ride on cable cars and visit Ngong Ping Village. At half past eleven, we are going to have lunch in a restaurant.

In the afternoon, we are going to visit The Big Buddha. We are going to arrive there at a quarter to one. We are going to leave The Big Buddha at a quarter to two and arrive back at Shek Wu Hui Public School at a quarter to three.

We choose these three places for the tour because all of our classmates would like to visit them. I think it will be a wonderful trip. I hope it will be sunny on that day.

A story about friendship

Lam Wing Shan, Wing (4D)

Last Sunday, Anna stayed at my home for a sleepover. She looked at my stuff and saw my doll's house. She ended up dropping my doll's house. I wasn't angry at her. I knew it was an accident. She repeated sorry for many times so I replied, 'It's fine.' She felt relieved to know I wasn't mad.

We both picked up the pieces and started rebuilding it. It was nine o'clock in the evening, so it was a bit close to midnight. We both started rushing it because we needed to rest.

Anna ended up going to bed because she was too sleepy. It was late at night, but I still continued rebuilding the doll's house. I was a bit tired.

When I finished rebuilding the house, it looked brand new. I left Anna a note before I slept. When Anna woke up, she saw my note and was surprised. It said, 'The house can be yours, Anna.' She was grateful to me for working hard even at midnight. She left me a small gift to thank me. It was a very humble day for her and me.

Getting lost

Zhang Tai Ming, Tony (4D)

Phoebe and Annie were good friends. One day, Phoebe was bored, so she called Annie. 'What are you going to do tomorrow?' Phoebe asked. 'I will go to the badminton court to play badminton. How about...' Annie answered.

'And I will bring two badminton rackets and some shuttlecocks,' Phoebe said with an exciting voice. But then she asked, 'How can I go to the sports centre?'

Annie said patiently, 'Listen carefully! Go out of Kwai Fong MTR station Exit A. Turn left and go straight ahead. Walk past the bakery and turn right. Walk across the road. The sports centre is in front of you. We will gather with other friends at the sports centre at half past eleven. Don't forget it!' Phoebe replied, 'Yes, I will remember that. I will not get lost.'

But the next day, Phoebe could not find the direction. Sadly, she got lost. Half an hour later, she ended up at a post office.

Suddenly, Phoebe met Annie at the street corner. How lucky she was! Finally, they went happily to the sports centre and they were very glad about that. Phoebe knew she needed to jot down the direction carefully and she would not get lost again.

Careless Sophie

Wu Jia Qi, Candy (5A)

Last Sunday, Sophie had a basketball lesson at nine o'clock in the morning. She was very hungry after the lesson. Her parents were not at home, so she went to a restaurant called "Happy Yummy Restaurant" for lunch.

In the restaurant, a waiter asked Sophie politely, 'Hello! What would you like to have?' Sophie replied, 'I'd like the Buffalo wings, please.' 'OK. Would you like some drinks?' asked the waiter. 'Sure! I'd like a cup of lemon tea, please,' Sophie answered.

Soon, the food and drink were ready. Sophie was already as hungry as a horse. The Buffalo wings were tasty and the lemon tea quenched her thirst. She finished her meal quickly and she felt very full.

'Check the bill!' said Sophie to the nearest waiter. 'OK, sixty-eight dollars, please,' the waiter answered. Sophie took out her wallet but she found out that she only had twenty dollars! She felt embarrassed and blushed as red as an apple. She didn't know what she could do!

Suddenly, Sophie had an idea! She took out her phone and called her mom. Her mom works near this restaurant so she came very fast. Sophie's mom helped her pay the bill on WeChat Pay and then left in a hurry.

Life then and now

Zhang Jenny (5A)

There is no doubt that many things have changed over the years. This makes our lives more convenient and comfortable. We can do everything easier than before. But what have changed around us?

In the past, everyone wrote letters to friends with pens and paper to keep contact with them. No one knew what mobile phones or tablets were. Thanks to the improvement of technology, now, everyone sends text messages. Some people use Wechat, some people use Whatsapps. Needless to say, this is much more convenient than writing letters.

Actually, it is not only the contact way has changed. The ways you listen to songs, keep cool, take photos have changed too. I prefer the life now because it makes me feel happier. I think the life after twenty years will be better because of different changes. However, nobody knows what will happen in the next twenty years, so we can just have to wait and see.

Eating at a Chinese restaurant

Fong Ching Yee, Shirley (5A)

This afternoon, my family and I had a bad experience in a Chinese restaurant! We were sitting at a table near a boy and a woman. When they were eating, the boy spoke impolitely with food in his mouth and the woman threw some pieces of bones on the floor rudely. I thought, 'This family is terrible!' We were very annoyed and glanced at them impatiently and didn't want to eat anything!

After they finished the meal, the boy ran around the restaurant and his mum didn't care about him because she was talking loudly on her phone. I said quietly to my dad, 'The boy is too naughty. His mum is also rude.' Suddenly, I heard a loud 'ouch' sound. That's the boy! He knocked into the waiter carelessly and the noodles that the waiter was holding spilt onto the boy. The waiter said 'sorry' to the boy immediately. But the boy's mum yelled, 'What's the matter with my son's clothes? You need to compensate my son for his clothes.'

We were fed up with them so I shouted, 'You're too rude. It's not the waiter's fault. It's you and your son's fault! You have to put the bones on the plate. Also, you have to speak softly on your phone! Your son has to keep quiet when he was eating. Besides, he shouldn't run around in the restaurant. It's very dangerous!' They felt embarrassed.

Finally, a staff drove them away. We were overjoyed. And we could enjoy our lunch quietly finally.

My brave dog saved a lady!

Lam Mung Yui, Jasmine (5A)

Believe it or not, even a small dog can do a great job!

Yesterday, I walked my dog, Baby, in a park near my home after dinner. I invited my best friend, Kitty, to join me. We talked when we were walking slowly. We felt relaxed.

Suddenly, we saw a robber at the corner of the park. He was pointing a knife at a lady! She felt scared. She handed over her handbag to him and said shakily, 'These are all my belongings, don' t hurt me please!' The robber grabbed the bag and ran away quickly.

When Kitty was calling 999 on her phone, Baby chased after the robber and barked at him. The robber was annoyed. He shouted loudly, 'Bothersome dog! Go away!' He wanted to kick Baby away. Baby was angry and bit his leg. 'Ouch! Bad dog!' He screamed loudly and fell down. After a while, the policemen arrived and they arrested the robber immediately.

In the end, the lady got back her handbag. She thanked us and gave us one hundred dollars as reward. I went to a pet shop and bought some snacks for Baby. Baby, you are so brave and great!

My birthday

Kong Chi Yau, Yauiyau (5B)

Sunday, 15th April

Sunny

Today is my birthday. I went to Ocean Park with my family. We arrived there at half past ten in the morning.

First, we went to Ocean Theatre for a sea animal show. In the show, some dolphins were jumping in and out of the water and some sea lions were heading balls. They were really smart.

After the show, we went to Café Ocean to have a big lunch. We ordered garden salad for the starter and roast chicken for the main course. When we were waiting for the food, I saw my best friend, Jimmy, was coming to the café with his family. They joined us and celebrated my birthday.

What an amazing day! I'm glad to see Jimmy at Ocean Park and we had a lot of fun.

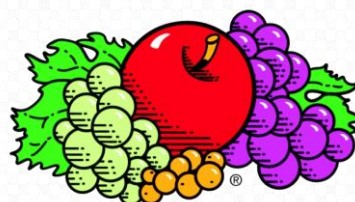

Zoe's eating habits

Luo Liren, Lawrence (5B)

Zoe had bad eating habits. She liked to eat meat but she didn't like to eat vegetables and fruit. Every night, she only ate a few vegetables and a little fruit. Her mum said, 'You shouldn't eat much meat and you should eat more vegetables and fruit.' However, Zoe didn't listen.

One day, Zoe and her parents were in a restaurant and had a buffet dinner. They felt happy. Zoe ate a lot of steak, fried chicken, sausages and French fries. She ate a lot of cakes and ice cream too.

Suddenly, Zoe didn't feel well and her parents take her to hospital. Doctor said, 'Zoe didn't feel well because she ate too much food.' Her parents felt worried. From then on, Zoe changed her eating habits.

Life then and now

Ou Wing Tung, Nancy (5C)

Things have changed over the years. People's living have changed in the past and at present.

In the past, people listened to the news on the radio. Now, people watch the news on a tablet. It's convenient to use the tablets.

In the past, people took photos with a film camera. Now, people take photos with a digital camera. People can take photos without using films. It saves money.

I prefer life now because it is easy to contact the other by using smart phones. It is convenient to keep contact with friends overseas too.

Eating at a Chinese restaurant

He Ching Hei, Cherry (5C)

This afternoon, my family and I went to a Chinese restaurant to have lunch. The food was yummy so we enjoyed it very much! We were happy.

We were enjoying our lunch when a boy spoke with food in his mouth. The boy sat at the table next to us. The boy's mother threw a piece of bone on the floor. They were impolite and rude.

After they finished the meal, the boy started running around the restaurant. His mother was talking loudly on the phone. Suddenly, the boy knocked into the waiter and the noodles spilled on the boy's T-shirt. The boy's mother was angry and yelled at the waiter.

I was annoyed at them so I said, 'It's not the waiter's fault! It's you and your son's fault! Your son has to keep quiet when he is eating. Also, you have to put the bones on the plate!' They felt embarrassed so they left the restaurant at once.

It was a bad day for me!

Life then and now

Kwok Chat Chau, Daniel (5D)

In the past, the communication was very troublesome, and the people who wanted to send messages were very inconvenient. In the past, besides sending letters, people had to go to talk to each other face to face.

Now, it is convenient to use phones to call people. It has changed a lot, such as convenient transportation, shopping and communication.

In the past, if you wanted to buy things far away from your home, you can only go out and buy them because there was no online shopping. However, people can buy things with mobile phones.

I prefer life at present because it is good for us to communicate with friends and shopping without leaving home.

My birthday

Chau Lok Hin, Issac (5D)

Sunday, 2nd March

Sunny

Today is my 11th birthday. My family is free today so we can have fun today. First, we went to Disneyland, I've been waiting to go there for a long time.

We rode the FASTEST roller coaster in the world but mom did not want to try because she was scared. The roller coaster was awesome. We had lunch at Issac Yummy Restaurant. The food was delicious.

This was the best birthday for me! When it was at night, I don't want to have an end this day. I'm so excited to have a birthday next year.

A detective story about a smartphone theft

Chen Yu Ho, Alan (6A)

Yesterday at three o'clock in the afternoon, a woman came out of Rose Restaurant. A man took her smartphone and ran away quickly. The woman looked very sad.

Then, the woman felt worried and afraid. She went into the restaurant and called the police. The restaurant's staff comforted the woman. After ten minutes, Detective Mel arrived. When Detective Mel arrived, the woman was happy. Detective Mel asked, 'What did the man wear?' The woman replied, 'The man was in jeans and sandals, with sunglasses and short hair.' The woman described him in detail.

Soon, Detective Mel found three men who matched the woman's descriptions, but they looked similar. The woman did not know who stole her phone. Suddenly, Detective Mel had a good idea. Detective Mel asked the woman for her phone number. Detective Mel used her phone and dialed the woman's phone number. One of the men's phone rang. Detective Mel arrested that man and returned the phone to the woman in the end!

Laura and her costume

Chen Yu Ngai, Alex (6A)

Last week, Laura wanted to join the school Halloween party but she had a problem. She needed a costume. She couldn't buy the costume because it was too expensive. Laura didn't have enough money to buy it.

When Laura went back home, she had an idea. She needed a costume, so she decided to make a costume by herself. She felt very good at this idea.

First, she used a pair of scissors to cut a plastic bag to make a coat. Then, she used a stapler to staple a piece of cardboard to make a hat. After that, she collected some small sticks and a big stick. Then, she used sellotape to stick the small sticks onto the big stick to make a beautiful broom. She was very excited about this costume because it was made from recycled materials and made by herself.

In the end, Laura wore her costume to take part in the party and the Costume Competition. She won the competition because only her costume was made from recycled materials. She felt very happy.

James and the monster

Liu Tsz Wai, Olivia (6A)

Everyone in the village thought James was as strong as an ax. It was because James could lift heavy things, such as a big stone, a lion and a tree.

One day, a scary monster came to the village and lived in a cave. The monster woke up in the morning every day. When the monster woke up, it went to the village and killed people. So, the villagers hid in a safe place when the monster woke up. Then, a villager went to James and said, 'A scary monster lives in our village. Can you help us kill it, please?'

'Of course!' James replied. After that, the villager and James went to the cave. The villager said, 'The monster is sleeping, it may wake up soon.'

After a while, the monster woke up and it went out. It saw James and ran to him. It wanted to kill James. James was as timid as a mouse. His body was shaking. Suddenly, a cupcake fell from James' pocket. The monster saw it and it was as gentle as a lamb.

In the end, James and the monster became friends with the monster. James brought a lot of cupcakes to the monster every day. The villagers were happy and they were never scared by the monster again.

A special festival

Cheung Chun Lok, Hugo (6A)

Chinese New Year is a special festival that is celebrated by people in China. It is celebrated in January or February. People celebrate this festival because they want to throw away the bad things.

Before the festival, people clean their houses in order to sweep away all the bad luck and to hope for good luck in the new year. People decorate their doors and windows with red paper. On Chinese New Year's Eve, families gather to have reunion dinners.

At Chinese New Year, people wear new clothes in red or bright colours. Lion dances are performed by adults. Flower markets are opened. Red packets are given to children. Red packets are filled with money which symbolize good luck. People eat sticky rice cakes, melon seeds and mandarin oranges.

Chinese people love this festival very much. At Chinese New Year, everyone has a great time and enjoys this festival very much.

James and the monster

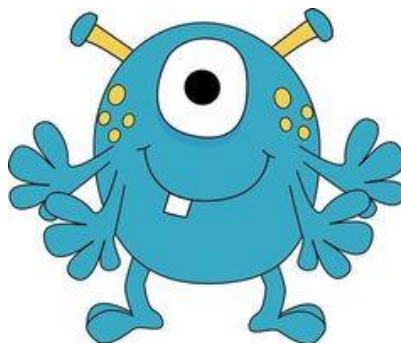

Shum Yan Yip, Rita (6B)

Everyone in the village thought James was as strong as an ox because he could lift heavy things, such as a huge stone, a big tree and a lion. They appreciated him.

One day, the villagers were very scared and escaped since they were chased by a hungry monster because the monster was huge, with sharp teeth and claws. James saw many villagers were escaping. He asked, 'What happened?' A villager told James, 'James, a huge monster came to our village. Please help us!'

The villager led James to a cave where the scary monster was staying. James went close to the cave and took a look, planning to find out what was inside. Suddenly, the monster woke up. It's because it smelled someone was nearby. When the monster saw James, it roared and pounced on James. James's body shook in fear and was as timid as a mouse. A small thing fell out from James's pocket. It's a cake. The monster saw the cake and became as gentle as a lamb. When the monster was eating the cake, James took advantage of this opportunity to escape. James ran as fast as lightning. He said, 'The monster like to eat sweet things.' All villagers said, 'We need to kill the monster.' Although James thought the monster is horrible, he still wanted to kill it. James wanted to be friends with the monster. He said with his opinion, 'It's better to give some desserts to the monster and tell him not to kill us.' A villager supported James's idea.

In the end, the villagers made a lot of cakes and James led them to the cave to express their sincerity and said, 'Monster, we bring a lot of cakes for you. Please don't kill us! We will bring a lot of cakes for you.' Suddenly, a light appeared in front of the villagers. It's an immortal. It turned out that the monster was the incarnation of a god, and the villagers who were captured before were all safe. The immortal said, 'James, you are the kindest person I have ever seen. Come with me, please.' James was confused when he followed the god. A cloud came down from the sky. There were three women there. The women were as beautiful as flowers. The immortal said, 'Choose one to be your wife.' James was happy and chose the lady on the right. That woman became his wife. They lived with a happy life ever since.

My dream job

Huang Kai Yin, Kay (6B)

I have always wanted to be an author because I like reading and I like to write stories. I want to put my own experiences and feelings in my work to inspire other readers.

I will write a lot of interesting stories for people to arouse their interest to read. Nowadays, fewer people love reading because they spent their time on the mobile phones. I would like people to start reading again.

I want to do this job well. Therefore, I will study hard, read more books and learn the writing skills to reach my dream. I have many stories to share with my readers to let them know me better. I think it is an interesting way to communicate with people through words.

My role model is J.K. Rowling. I really like her masterpiece 'Harry Potter'. She won many awards such as 'British National Book Award for Children's Fiction'.

I will do everything I can to reach my dream.

The adventure of Gingerbread Man

Chan Ka Wang, Leo (6B)

One day, Mrs. Baker was baking a gingerbread man in the kitchen. After a while, she heard a voice came out from the oven. Then, she saw a gingerbread man jump out and run away. The gingerbread man ran away as fast as lightning. Mrs. Baker called Mr. Baker for help. They kept chasing the gingerbread man until they reached a river. The gingerbread man stopped in front of the river because he could not swim.

After that, the gingerbread man saw a fox. The fox said, 'Hey! I can help you. Jump onto my nose!' The gingerbread man believed the fox and jumped onto his nose. Suddenly, the fox opened his mouth and ate the gingerbread man because he told lies. The fox was as hungry as a bear and the gingerbread man cried like a baby.

Finally, Mrs. Baker baked another gingerbread man and the new gingerbread man came alive too. They lived happily together. Mrs. Baker and Mr. Baker were as happy as clams because they wanted a child for a long time. They enjoyed their family life except swimming.

A diary entry

Cai Wan Hei, Kelly (6C)

21st April, 2021

Sunny

Today was Macy's birthday. I baked a cake in the kitchen because I wanted to give Macy a surprise. I felt very happy while making the cake.

Suddenly, Mum asked me, 'How long does it take to go from our home to Macy's home in Kowloon Bay by bus?' I replied, 'It takes about 30 minutes to get to Macy's home.'

Before long, the cake was ready and I was so excited. It smelt great and looked beautiful. I wrapped it up and set out for Macy's home. When I was on the bus, I saw a lot of people. It was crowded. The bus was moving as slow as a snail because of the traffic jam. I looked at my watch and felt very nervous and worried because it was already one twenty. I was afraid I would be late for the birthday. Therefore, I called Macy to tell her that I would be ten minutes late.

In the end, I arrived at Macy's home on time. We began to play games and shared the food. It was delicious. She thanked me for making her a tasty cheese cake. She loved it very much. She also got a lot of birthday presents from her friends too. We all enjoyed the party very much. We had fun.

Laura and her costume

Hung Sze Ki, Rebecca (6D)

Laura was a primary 6 student. She was an active and sociable girl. She always joined different kinds of events and competitions at school.

One day, she saw a poster about 'Halloween Party and Costume Competition'. She saw a beautiful costume in a shop but it was expensive. Although Laura was so keen on joining the party and the competition, she did not have enough money to buy a Halloween costume because it was too expensive. The dress which she wanted was made in Japan.

Laura felt disappointed but she thought of many other ways to solve this problem so that she could join the event. Suddenly she had an excellent idea! She decided to make another Halloween costume for herself!

Laura wanted to dress up like a wizard. She would make a dress, a hat and a stick. She would prepare some materials such as a plastic bag, a piece of cardboard, a stick and some paper strips.

Laura used a pair of scissors to cut the plastic bag. She wanted to make a dress. It was made from plastic. Laura had an amazing hat which was made from a piece of cardboard. She used a stapler to staple the cardboard so that the hat has a round shape with a sharp end. Moreover, there was a broom too.

After that, Laura went to the Halloween party in her own Halloween costume. She was as happy as a clam and she thought that she was as smart as an owl. She was happy to tell everyone that this costume was made by Laura!
