Friday, 2nd April

Cloudy

I am now seven years old. I have achieved many things that I could not do before. I couldn't tie my shoelaces by myself and tidy my room. My mum had to help me all the time.

My sister, Sally, was very disappointed. She said to me, 'Tom, don't ask Mum to tie your shoelaces. You must learn to tie your shoelaces.' I was ashamed and decided to make a change!

The next day, I learned to tie my shoelaces and tidy my room. My sister was surprised because I could not do these a few months ago. She was proud of me. She said I was a clever boy.

I think I have grown up, I want to help my parents to share some housework. I can help them clean the table by myself. I can help them fold the clothes. I can also help them take the mail.

I feel like I'm not who I used to be anymore. I have grown up. You can do a lot of things. My parents think I am a good boy too.

To sum up, he won 21 fights continuously up to March 2017.

Tso Sing Yu is brave, he will persist even if he is hit with blood all over his face. He is the person I admire because he teaches us that even if we encounter any difficulties, we should face them positively and never give up. Once he said, 'Everything starts from daring of think.'

Yesterday was my mum's birthday. My sister, Eva and I decided to organise a party for mum. I was responsible for buying snacks, drinks and cakes, and Eva would be in charge of tidying the living room as well as writing some blessings on the birthday card.

First, I went to ABC Supermarket to buy some snacks and drinks. When I was coming out of the supermarket, my phone rang. It was Eva. 'Hi, it's Eva. Have you bought all the food yet?' Eva asked me. 'No, I have just bought the snacks and the drinks, but I haven't bought the cake yet. Anyway, have you tidied the living room yet?' I asked. 'Yes, I have already done that, But I'm still drawing the birthday card,' she replied. 'Maybe I can help you,' I suggested. 'Great!' my sister shouted. So I went home and helped Eva.

In the evening, we celebrated together. Mum was really surprised! Suddenly, Eva asked me, 'Where's the cake?' I was shocked. I forgot to buy the cake! I felt very sad and embarrassed. My mum smiled and said, 'That's okay! Maybe we can eat noodles instead of cakes.' Although my mum forgave me, I still felt sorry.

What an unforgettable day!

A diary

Hu Charlie Ka Yeung (5B)

25 April, 20XX (Sun)

Cloudy

This afternoon, I was busy cooking in the kitchen. I was helping my mum to bake a cake, and it was for dessert tonight. However, things took a bad turn, all because of one small mistake.

After we put in the last ingredient we had into the round mould, I put it into the oven. I made a BIG mistake. I set the timer wrongly for the oven. 'Bake the cake for thirteen minutes. It's the most crucial part because if you get it wrong, you'll ruin the whole cake!' my mum said. But I miss-heard it and set the timer to thirty minutes. 'Beep!' the timer rang. I couldn't wait to see the cake, but as I opened the oven, a failure was only to be found. I could smell the burnt cake. My mum saw that and said, 'HOW DARE YOU! This was the only last remaining ingredients! Now we have nothing to eat!' I sadly walked to my room.

Despite all the terrible things that happened, this was the worst. I couldn't believe that I made this mistake and disappointed my mum.

It was a bad day for me.

A person I admire

Hu Thomas Ka Tung (5B)

Have you even watched the movie 'Mom's Wonder Boy'? It's about a person I admire, So Wa Wai, the famous Hong Kong athlete. He's called 'Wonder Boy' for a reason.

So Wa Wai was born in Hong Kong in 1981. He was diagnosed with an illness which made him half deaf for his entire life, but that didn't stop him from being the best runner in the world! He has been a full-time athlete for twenty years.

So Wa Wai is not just hard-working, he's also very brave. He attempted to join many relay races and individual races. He won many awards. He also joined the Paralympic Games. Although he was disappointed when his relay team lost, he still believed in himself and continued his race. He won the 200m race and broke his own record. He finished the race in 24.31 seconds! Isn't that great!

So Wa Wai is definitely a great role model for the next generation. I shall finally finish this article with a quote from him: 'Confidence is the key. Don't let minor mistakes stop you, and never give up!'

A family camp

Hui Yeung Ming, Owen (5B)

Over the summer holiday, Spencer went to a family camp with his parents. These events unfolded at the family camp.

To begin with, there were a variety of activities for the visitors to join, which were shown on the noticeboard. When Spencer's parents were looking at the posters, a boy with a cap came with his parents. The boy was very excited when he saw the horse-riding class.

Then, Spencer approached the boy in a friendly manner and asked him if he would like to join the horse-riding class together. The boy showed his interest. Soon, the two boys started to chat with each other. Through the conversation, Spencer learned that the boy was called David, and he had ridden a horse once when he was four years old. He said that was an exciting experience.

Eventually, with the coaches' guidance and encouragement, Spencer and David were able to handle the horse-riding skills very well.

Both families had lots of fun at the family camp. They promised to do it again. After the horse-riding class, Spencer and David went to buy ice cream to cool off. They felt refreshed after finishing their ice cream.

My birthday

10th May

Sunny

Today is my tenth birthday! I got up at six o'clock because I was too excited that I couldn't sleep! In the morning, my best friend, Aura came to my home and we played some board games. We also did jigsaw puzzles. In the afternoon, Aura, my family and I went to a five-stars hotel to eat lunch. We ate steak, sushi, spaghetti...They were absolutely delicious!

Then, we went to the shopping centre. My dad gave me 50 dollars to buy the things I like. I chose some new notebooks and pens. Aura bought me a doll as my birthday present. After that, we went ice skating in the shopping centre. I used to go ice skating twice a month. Now I go ice skating four times a year. We skated for three hours. Our legs were tired. Next, we ate hotpot. We ordered a big birthday cake. On the cake, there were some big words, 'Avi! Happy birthday!' We were all full.

What an unique day! It was my best birthday! It was really memorable. I hope my next birthday will be as amazing as today.

My sister and I organized a birthday party for Mum yesterday. We wanted to celebrate her birthday, so we had to buy the snacks, drinks and a birthday cake. But before I went to the supermarket, we had to write a to-do list.

After going to the supermarket, I called my sister. I said, 'Have you tidied the living room yet?' 'Yes, I have. Have you got the groceries yet?' I said. 'Yes, I have. I'm coming home now.'

Finally, when we were having a good time. Something came out of my mind. 'Oh, no! I forgot to buy the cake!' But then Mum said, 'It's okay. I don't even like cakes!' Thankfully, everything was fine in the end and we were all happy.

I was absent from school this morning. It wasn't fun. I was tired all day.

When my mother woke me up this morning, I felt so dizzy that I could not get up. I had a runny nose and a headache. Then, my mother checked my temperature with a thermometer. She said that I had a fever too. Therefore, my mother put an ice pad on my forehead and took me to see a doctor.

At the clinic, my mother registered at the reception counter and the nurse asked us to sit in the waiting area. There were other patients in the clinic. They all felt uncomfortable. I saw a man coughing and sneezing and a girl got a stomachache. My mother and I spent almost an hour waiting for the doctor. I felt awful when I was waiting.

Then, it was my turn to go into the doctor's room. The doctor checked my body and my tongue. And he told me that I have got the flu. He said I should take some medicine for the flu, drink plenty of warm water and stay at home at least two days for recovery.

Finally, we went back home. My mother cooked congee for me. I am grateful to have a loving mother.

Developing good habits

Chen Mang Ham, Lucinda (6A)

I am going to develop some good habits to improve my health and make me a better person.

I always go to school late and my class teacher is always angry about it. I ought to be punctual so that I won't miss out on anything and my teacher will be happy. I have thought of a way to change this bad habit. I can go to bed early and set an alarm clock. I believe I can change it soon.

I also always play computer games for a long time every day. Playing computer games for too long hurts my eyes, so I ought to spend less time on it. However, I feel bored if I don't play computer games. My mum asks me to read some books instead. I think it is a good idea.

My last bad habit is biting my fingernails. I always bite them because they are too long. Biting fingernails might cause germs to enter my body and make me ill. I ought to cut my fingernails regularly.

I think it will not be easy to change these habits, but I will try my best to change them!

Detective Mel

Ge Yung (6A)

Yesterday at three o'clock in the afternoon, Susan went out from the Rose Restaurant after finishing her afternoon tea. Suddenly, a middle-aged man took away Susan's mobile phone and rushed to the street. Susan was shocked and frightened.

Susan went back to the restaurant. She borrowed the telephone to call the police from a waitress. The waitress who comforted Susan wore a cap with a flower on it and she was in the uniform of the restaurant. After Susan called the police, she sat down, drank a cup of coffee and waited for the detective.

Ten minutes later, the detective came. She wore a hat and a suit. She held a suitcase and a magnifier. The detective asked, 'Hi! I am Detective Mel. What can I help?' Susan was delighted when she saw her. Susan was describing the thief while Detective Mel was taking notes on her notebook. Susan said, 'The thief who took away my phone was in the jeans and the sandals. He wore sunglasses. Oh! I remember he was short and he had short hair. He was a middle-aged man.' 'Thank you,' replied Detective Mel.

When Susan and Detective Mel arrived at the police station, there were three men standing near the wall. They were almost the same! Susan asked, 'Why are they here?' 'After you described the man, I called other colleagues to catch them.' Susan was confused because she didn't know which one was the thief. 'I cannot identify the thief!' Susan said. Detective Mel answered, 'No worries. I have an idea.' Then, Detective Mel pointed at the second man and shouted, 'Don't you think that I don't know you are the thief? Ha! Ha!' The man was nervous.

At the end, the thief was caught. Susan asked Detective Mel, 'How do you know he is the thief?' 'Ha! It's easy. As what you said, he was a middle-aged man. Look at them. One is old and one is a teenager. Only one is middle-aged. So I know that he is the thief!' Detective Mel replied. Susan was excited to get back her phone. 'You are so clever! Thank you for helping me!' said Susan.

After an hour, it was my turn. The doctor said I had a cold. He told me to take more rest and take medicine on time. The doctor also told me to rest at home for one week.

Today was Macy's birthday. Macy invited me to her birthday party at her home. Macy's birthday was at half past one today. I was excited about it. I used the oven to bake a chocolate cake for Macy because she liked eating chocolate cake. I hoped she would like it.

At lunchtime, my mum asked me, 'How long does it take to go from our home to Macy's home?' I replied, 'It takes about thirty minutes by bus.'

After lunch, I went on the bus to go to Macy's home. However, there was a traffic jam on the way. I was nervous because the bus was as slow as a snail and the time was already one forty.

In the end, I arrived at Macy's home at one fifty. I said, 'Sorry, Macy. I am late about 20 minutes.' Macy replied, 'It's just fine, I will forgive you because you are my best friend.' Then, we ate the chocolate cake and had a great time at the party.

In the clinic, there were many patients with different illnesses. They looked terrible. A man kept coughing and sneezing. However, he did not wear a mask. A baby was crying loudly, I think it was very ill. A girl had a stomachache, she looked very sick. When a nurse called the man, he came into the room. I was bored and waited for more than one hour.

After an hour, it's my turn. The doctor said to me, 'You have a cold. You must take medicine on time and take more rest. Don't forget to drink more water and eat fresh fruit.'

Finally, I stayed in bed unhappily, but my friends phoned me. We had a good time.

I think this cartoon is amazing because it got seven Oscar awards. This cartoon is very popular around the world. Many singers or dubbing speakers dub the characters in the cartoon.

My favourite part is the story. Since Tom catches Jerry in different ways, the ways are so funny and entertaining. Jerry is my favourite character because he is smart and he runs so fast, so Tom cannot catch him in the cartoon.

I would recommend it to my family because I laughed a lot when I watched the cartoon. I hope my family can laugh too.

I was absent from school last week. I had a fever, a runny nose and a stomachache. I felt horrible that it was hard for me to even keep my head up. My mum checked my temperature and put an ice pack on my forehead. It didn't help much but it did something I guess. My mum booked a doctor appointment for the next day. She was really worried.

The next day, she took me to the clinic for the appointment. A lot of other people were there. Someone kept sneezing and coughing on my shoulder without a mask. It was really disgusting. I waited for what felt like an eternity, even though it was just an hour. I felt even worse by the second. Someone's baby kept crying and screaming which made everything more horrible.

It was finally my turn. It was hard to walk into the doctor's office because my body felt so heavy. My mum explained everything wrong with me. The doctor just said it was a cold and told me to take some medicine and rest. The doctor didn't even give us medicine and the whole thing costed two hundred dollars. What a waste of money!

We went back home and my mum had to buy me medicine while I was staying at home. I felt much worse without my mother reassuring me that I'll be fine. I rested in my bed for three hours waiting for my mum. I felt much longer than three hours. When my mum finally came back she said she couldn't find any suitable medicine so she just bought my favourite food. It didn't really matter anymore.

I had to stay at home for a whole week. The week was the longest week ever. I'm just glad I feel much better now and hope that I never get that sick again.

My favourite TV programme

So Kwan Kiu, Nicole (6D)

My favourite TV programme is Midlife, Sing & Shine! It is a music talent show which is produced by Hong Kong Television Broadcasting Co, Ltd. It is one of the variety shows produced to celebrate the 55th anniversary of TVB. It is broadcasted under the name 'Inheritance Carnival 55'.

The prelude programme 'The Voice of Middle Age, Start Again to Dream' was broadcasted on Jade Channel on 5th and 12th November in 2022 and the official competition has been broadcasted on Jade Channel since 27th November in 2022.

I think this TV programme is entertaining and amusing. I like watching the performers singing. I think this show is very exciting because someone will be eliminated in each round, and it makes me very nervous.

My favourite part of the show is the elimination part of the performers. The elimination can decide you are successful or not. I watch it every Sunday and I am looking forward to a new show every time.

I will recommend it to my family, friends and teachers. I think they will enjoy watching this music talent show too.
