

My dream job

Chau Wing Yi, Yurika (6C)

When I grow up, I want to be a singer. I love this job because I love singing, just like Lalisa Manoban!

To make my dream come true, I need to be good at singing. Therefore, I will listen to more songs. In order to fulfill my goal, I need to be fit and beautiful. Therefore, I will learn how to keep fit. I hope one day I can be like Lalisa Manoban. She does exactly what I want to do so I will follow her footsteps and become a singer. I think she has inspired many people, not only me.

If I become a singer, I can go to different places to perform. Being a singer would be a dream for me. I will try my best to make my dream come true and inspire others with my songs one day.
