Chinese New Year is a special festival that is celebrated by people in China. It is celebrated by many people. It is usually celebrated in January or February. People celebrate this festival because it is a new year in the lunar calendar.

Before the festival, people usually decorate their homes using Chinese calligraphy, Chinese knots or flowers.

Reunion dinner is usually served at Chinese New Year's Eve. Traditional food like sticky rice cakes, dried oysters and Chinese sweet dumplings are served. Each of them represents a good wish.

Everyone has a great time at this festival. Red packets are received by children.
