Today was Mum's birthday. My dad took Mum and I to have a buffet lunch for Mum's birthday. When we arrived, it was already one o'clock. I was so hungry, we went to get the food. My dad took spaghetti and I wanted some prawns because I liked eating seafood. I ate like a truck!

I had a lot of yummy food. I felt delighted to have so many kinds of food. Then, a waiter held a birthday cake to Mum and I said, 'Happy Birthday, Mum!' Mum was surprised and glad that we remembered her birthday. Mum felt pleased, then, we all sang the birthday song to her. And we ate the birthday cake together. After that, my dad was about to pay the bill. My dad said, 'I'd like to pay, please.' The cashier said, '$1000 please!' but when he opened his wallet, it was empty. There was no money or credit cards. My dad was shocked at not having any money.

In the end, the cashier said if there was a birthday star, it will be free. My dad was pleased to hear that. He said, 'Today is my wife's birthday, is it free for her?' The cashier replied, 'Yes, sure. Congratulations!' Finally, we left with full stomach and food-stained faces.

Person I Admire

Wong Kam Kwan, Allen (5C)

The person I admire is Chow Yun Fat. He is an international actor. He was born in 1958. He was born and grew up in Wang Long Village on Lamma Island.

First, Chow Yun Fat has been an international actor for over twenty years. He has won the Hong Kong Film Award for Best Actor three times. He has also won the Best Leading Actor Award at the Golden Horse Film Award twice. In the early 1990s of Hong Kong, he was as famous as Jacky Chan and Stephen Chow.

Second, Chow Yun Fat started learning English when he was about forty years old. He asked his wife and teacher to teach him word by word, sentence by sentence. When he was in America, he watched TV news every day. Now, his English is very good.

In the end, I think Chow Yun Fat is kind and caring because he almost donated all his money. I think I can learn from Chow Yun Fat from his kindness and hard-work.

I was absent from school this morning. I was alright last night but I felt terrible when I got up this morning. I have got a fever and a runny nose. Mum took my temperature with a thermometer. She put an ice pad on my forehead. She was worried about me so she decided to take me to see the doctor.

We arrived at Dr. Chan's clinic at 10 o'clock. There were many patients in the clinic. I felt annoyed because a baby kept crying loudly in front of me. Moreover, the other patients had different symptoms. A man kept coughing and sneezing but he didn't wear a mask. What a selfish man! A girl had a stomachache. She looked very sick. I waited in the clinic for almost an hour and I felt worse.

Finally, it was my turn. Dr. Chan checked my body and tongue. He said I had a cold. He told me to take the medicine three times a day. He told me not to go to school at least for two days. He said, 'You should not eat fried food for a week. Also. You need to do more exercise after recovering.'

After I saw the doctor, my friend, Hayley, visited me after school. She wrote down all the notes of today's classes. So sweet! She wished me to recover soon. I was very disappointed because I missed the dance performance today. I have practiced the dance for a year. What an unlucky day!

Forces of Nature

Yeung Yim Chi, Samuel (6A)

Long time ago, there was a girl called Lily. Lily did not like helping the needy. She had never donated money to charity, sold flags or visited the elderly home. She was not kind or helpful. At school, all her classmates joined activities to raise money for the charity, but only she refused to join them. She was very selfish.

One night, Lily was watching TV at home. She watched a documentary which was about a powerful earthquake in Japan. In the TV programme, an earthquake struck northern Japan! The buildings shook seriously. A man was very frightened. He hid under a table quickly so he wouldn't be buried by the broken ceiling. But Lily thought the TV programme was boring. 'I am not interested in anything about natural events or disasters. This TV programme is so boring!' Lily thought.

Lily went to bed after watching TV. At first, she slept soundly. But at midnight, she had a terrible nightmare. It was upsetting and scary. In her dream, a powerful earthquake occurred. It caused severe floods and tsunamis. The earthquake caused enormous damage to the houses and buildings, and destroyed everything. All the people lost their homes. Somebody even lost their family members! Lily lost her home too. She could only live in a tent. She was cold at night because she did not have any blankets. Nobody helped her. She felt lonely and helpless.

The next morning when Lily woke up, she was very worried about the people who lived in the earthquake zones. She finally understood that they need help! She regretted that she didn't help them before. From then on, Lily was willing to help people in need. She enjoyed joining the charity work and always donated money to the charity.

Today was Macy's birthday. Macy invited me to her birthday party at her home. The party was held at half past one in the afternoon. At noon, I baked a strawberry cake in the kitchen because I wanted to give Macy a surprise. I felt excited when the cake looked good in the oven.

At lunchtime, I told Mom that I would go to Macy's home to have a birthday party in the afternoon. 'How long does it take to go from our home to Macy's home?' Mom asked. 'Her home is in Kowloon Bay so it takes about 30 minutes by bus. After lunch, I set off to Macy's home by bus. On the bus, it was very crowded and it went slowly because of the traffic jam. It was already twenty minutes past one! I felt worried because I thought I would be late for the party. At that moment, I did not know what I could do.

Finally, I arrived at Macy's home at two o'clock. 'Sorry, I am late because of the traffic jam on my way.' I explained. She hugged me and said, 'Never mind, Zoe. I am glad that you have come to celebrate my birthday. Let's start the party now.' Zoe loved the cake very much and we had a wonderful party.
